Programming includes author visits, Rare Book Workshops, M’Dor le Dor, primary source workshops, genealogical workshops and more.

Daycares from the area visit our drop-in storytimes to begin early literacy for the children in their care.

Many borrow books for their classrooms.

Synagogues of diverse denominations collaborate and partner with us on speaker series and celebrations, bringing programming and Jewish education. Furthermore, we offer free memberships through synagogues in honour of Bar and Bat Mitzvah celebrations.

Museums and other archives have partnered with the library on a multitude of exhibits and programs through our archival collection. Most recently,
