Behind the Curtain: Meet the cast of recollections with the JPL

We're pulling back the curtain and reuniting the voices behind recollections with the JPL – the Jewish Public Library's new limited series podcast on the history and progression of the Jewish Left in Montreal. Join us for a night of cocktails and conversation in celebration of this broadcast and the storied history of the Jewish Left. The evening will include a live discussion with our podcast panel and guests are encouraged to share their experiences of the Left for a chance at a special shout-out in episode five. There will also be a curated selection of archival materials related to the history of the Jewish Left in Montreal, presented gallery-style for your enjoyment.

- Panel discussion at 7pm.
- The event will take place at the Museum of Jewish Montreal on the ground floor.

All are welcome. If ticket cost is a barrier to entry, please email ellen.belshaw@jplmontreal.org.

Accessibility notices:

Please help us keep our communities safe. If you are sick the day of the event, we ask that you please refrain from joining us. KN94/95 masks will be made available at the entrance for all interested attendees.

The ground floor of the Museum of Jewish Montreal has a wheelchair ramp and a wheelchair accessible bathroom. There are no automatic door openers, but a Museum staff can assist any visitors entering the building. We do not have an elevator, hence the two upper floors are not accessible for people with reduced mobility.

Generously sponsored in loving memory of George Aikins.
